

JOINT CITY/COUNTY TASK FORCE ON RIDGE, SLOPE AND HILLSIDE DEVELOPMENT AND PROTECTION

Public Involvement & Education, Public Relations and Recreation

Wednesday, July 30th 11:30am
Knox County Parks & Recreation Offices
John Tarleton Park
Large Conference Room

Agenda

11:30 to 11:35pm

- Task Force co-chairs lead, Tony Norman and Joe Hultquist
 - Introduce committee chair, Elaine Clark
 - Introduce MPC facilitators - Liz Albertson & Mike Carberry

11:35 to 11:55pm

- Overview of existing land development regulations related to steep slopes
 - Frequently Asked Questions (FAQ) format
 - Questions / Answer session
 - David McGinley, City Engineering
 - Cindy Pionke, County Engineering* (may not be able to attend today, but will be available to answer questions via email, etc...)
 - Mike Carberry and Liz Albertson, MPC

Please feel free to ask any questions you may have about the development process at this time, if we run out of time, please email in your questions and we'll try to get the appropriate party to answer them.

11:55 to 12:15pm

- GIS Manager, Tim Kuhn
 - Discusses mapping capabilities

12:15 to 1:00pm

- MPC Facilitators, Mike Carberry and Liz Albertson
 - Identify "Top 2" issues that should be addressed by next Task Force meeting.
 - Second committee meeting needed before next Task Force meeting on Thursday, August 28th from 9:30am until 11:30am at Ijams Nature Center.
 - Ed McMahon Symposium has been scheduled for Thursday, August 21st at the Knoxville Convention Center from 4:00-5:30 p.m. in Room 301 E.