

5 Residential Development

Section 5.1: Medium and High Density Residential Development in BP Zone and BP-1 District

Note: Proposed changes to the TTCDA state enabling legislation will allow the review of medium to high density residential uses in the Technology Overlay. Upon adoption of these changes, the TTCDA and MPC staffs will create design standards for such development, consistent with the guiding principles of the TTCDA Comprehensive Development Plan, and compatible with standards for non-residential development included in these guidelines.
