Developer Meeting: This is the project review meeting where staff will meet with the applicant to discuss changes needed to the submitted plans prior to review by the Planning Commission. The Planning staff will contact the applicant on whether they will need to attend the meeting and the time they need to be there.

Revised Plans: This is the date that revised plans need to be submitted to the Planning office. Plans should be submitted as full scale paper copies (5 sets) and a pdf version should be sent to the project planner. This is also the date that any revised Traffic Impact Analysis (paper copies and pdf file) should be submitted unless directed otherwise. (The original Traffic Impact Analysis must be submitted by the standard deadline for submission of the Concept Plan or Use on Review.)
